CIVIL RIGHTS PROPONENTS
FIGHT GROWING SENTIMENT
TO LIMIT BILL TO VOTING

By JACK BELL

Washington, (AP)—Supporters of the administration's civil rights bill fought today against mounting Senate sentiment to confine the measure's terms to the protection of voting rights.

An influential senator who asked not to be quoted by name said leadership polls indicate a majority of the Senate now favors an amendment by Senators Anderson (D-NM) and Aiken (R-Vt.) to narrow the bill's scope.

Anderson and Aiken have proposed eliminating a section which would authorize the attorney general to seek injunctions to enforce all civil rights, including desegregation of schools and other public places.

If the amendment were adopted, the proposed authority of the attorney general to intervene would be limited to cases involving voting rights.

Sen. Knowland (R-Calif.) told reporters he believes the vote on the amendment "will be close but at this point I don't believe the section would be stricken from the bill."

As an indication he wasn't certain of any such results, however, Knowland joined with Sen. Humphrey (D-Minn.) yesterday in a move to chip away one portion of the controversial section.

They offered an amendment to repeal a post-Civil War reconstruction law authorizing the use of federal troops to enforce court orders. This old law had been linked in the bill to the proposed new authority for the attorney general to help enforce all civil rights.

Sen. Russell (D-Ga.) said this move constituted an admission he was correct when he told the Senate two weeks ago that the House bill would authorize "bayonet" enforcement of integration in the South.

Knowland and Humphrey acted after President Eisenhower had told his news conference he couldn't imagine any circumstances that would induce him to use federal troops to enforce court orders.

The prosecution charges the alleged conspiracy stemmed from a turnpike contract with the Manu-Mine Research and Development Co., Reading, for filling mine voids on the northeast extension of the toll road.

Donnelly testified yesterday it would have been impossible for him to have conspired against the commission.

He said the toll road contract which the prosecution says was used in the conspiracy was never put before his firm for approval or disapproval.

Donnelly told the Dauphin County jury Manu-Mine work "was based on good, sound engineering principles and judgment."

Woman Spends
$15 Day In Pinball
Plays at Uniontown

Uniontown, (AP)—A Uniontown woman who says she spends up to $15 daily playing pinball machines has told a Fayette County Court of receiving cash payoffs for making high scores on the devices.

Mrs. Ann Pratt gave that testimony yesterday in the first day of the hearing before Judge Eustace H. Bane to determine whether pinball machines are gambling devices.

The Commonwealth has asked the court to rule pinball machines illegal and grant permission to destroy 41 of them seized in raids last June 26 at Connelisville, Uniontown and Brownsville.

Mrs. Pratt, testifying for the state, told the court she had received payoffs of up to $25 at Bee-son's Confectionery, Uniontown, and at Richey's, a Uniontown dairy bar. She said she spends up to $15 and as long as six hours daily playing the machines.

The state contends the machines are games of chance but defense attorneys declare they are tests of skill.

Jaycees' Membership Meeting
Discusses Forthcoming Events

Discussion of several forthcoming events, including an inter-club picnic, and reports of successful programs completed comprised the regular meeting of Warren Area Junior Chamber of Commerce last evening in YMCA.

Prior to the general meeting, trophies were presented to winners and runnersup in the recent tennis tournament held on Beatty Courts. Blair Smoulder, Ross Kremer and Patty Lanman were present to accept their awards and were congratulated by President Dick Cook. Because of the evident success of this project, it seems likely it will become an annual affair.

Reports were heard from the three vice-presidents who told of the activities being carried forward by their particular division. Jack Lesser announced Gail Cobb had been appointed chairman of the annual membership drive to start late this month. Bill Farnick reported plans for an auxiliary and inter-chapter picnic were already under way with the events to be held in August and September.

First reports were presented on the bicycle fair to be held under auspices of the Playground Committee August 14; the Air Fair, to be held at the local airport Labor Day weekend; and the famed Passion Play, to be presented in Warren September 8, 9 and 10. The later event is already receiving (Turn to Page Sixteen)

Three Killed
In TNT Blast
On Naval Craft

By GEORGE MACKIE

New London, Conn. (AP)—A 2½ pound T.N.T. charge went off accidentally aboard a cruising Navy escort patrol craft last night, killing three men and injuring four others seriously.

The explosion occurred aboard the 180-foot, U. S. S. Somersworth, which was on routine maneuvers in the Atlantic, about 120 miles southeast of here.

The Navy identified the dead as Anthony Poca, 31, of Groton; John R. Turley, 29, of New London; and Francis P. Brophy, 18, of Malden, Mass.

Poca and Turley were married. They were the fathers of one child and three children, respectively. The Navy said the vessel had been engaged in text exercises since Monday morning. It docked here at dawn bearing the bodies of the three dead men.

The fatal charge was the last of about 135 discharged during the exercise, the Navy said. The charges are used in experiments to study the transmission of sound under water.

Capt. Harold E. Ruble, commander of the underwater sound laboratory, told newsmen such charges have been used by the Navy for at least 11 years. This is the first accident of its kind he was aware of, he said.

The wounded were placed aboard another Naval vessel which headed for the Newport, R. I., Naval base.

The four were removed on stretchers and taken in ambulances to Newport Naval Hospital.

Heiress Plunges To
Her Death From a
Penthouse in N. Y.

New York (AP)—Saying she was taking "the only way out," an attractive 24-year-old Milwaukee heiress plunged to her death yesterday from a 28th-floor Park Avenue penthouse.

Patricia E. Philipp, socialite daughter of a man prominent in Wisconsin Republican circles and granddaughter of a former governor of the state, left an unsigned 13-word note.

No Survivors Found on Wreckage of U. S. Plane

Taipei, Formosa (AP)—A Chinese rescue team today reached the wreckage of a U. S. Air Force plane with 16 aboard and found no survivors, police reported.

The team could identify only 10 bodies in the wreckage on a mountain slope. Seven crewmen and nine passengers were aboard the two-engine C47 transport when it vanished Tuesday night near the end of a trip from Clark field in the Philippines to its base at Taipei.

The search team came across the wreckage in the jagged mountains between Taipei and the Formosa Strait. It was spread along the forested slopes of Mt. Chai-tien near Hsinchu.

House Leaders Hope President's Plea Will
Halt Further Slashes in Foreign Aid BillPROSECUTION FINISHES IN CLINTON TRIAL

By RELMAN MORIN

Knoxville, Tenn. (AP)—The government today dropped criminal contempt charges against four of the 15 defendants in the Clinton segregation trial.

U. S. Dist. Atty. John C. Crawford Jr. at the outset of today's session asked for dismissal of criminal contempt charges against Thomas Sanders, Chris Foust, J. B. Long and J. L. Coley.

"In my opinion the evidence is not sufficient to warrant conviction of these men," Crawford told U. S. Dist. Judge Robert L. Taylor. "Therefore, I move to dismiss the charges against them."

U. S. Dist. Judge Robert L. Taylor agreed.

Crawford then told the court the government rested its case in the history-making nine-day-old trial.

Chief defense counsel Robert L. Dobbs, Memphis, immediately moved for directed verdict of acquittal for the 10 remaining defendants.

Taylor merely nodded his head without committing himself as to what his decision would be.

The government has indicted 14 Tennesseans and lanky, dark-haired John Kasper, Northern segregationist organizer, for criminal contempt.

It charges that they knowingly "acted in concert" to defy a federal injunction against interference with enrolling Negroes in Clinton High School. Clinton is a pretty highland town, population 4,500, near Knoxville.

If convicted by the all-white jury of 10 men and two women, the 15 could get a maximum penalty of six months in jail or $1,000 fine or both.

It is considered a landmark trial, with immense implications for future civil rights cases.

And it has been a bitter, angry courtroom battle, bristling with sharp-edged words: "Nigger lover... somebody's going to get killed... filth, you never heard such filth."

Father of 15 Children Is Killed in Death Plunge

Monaca (AP)—Fifteen children, 13 of them under 16 years old, were fatherless today following the death plunge of a steel construction worker in an 80-foot plunge from a new building near this Beaver County town.

Lloyd V. Keenan, 41, of Washington, R. D. 2, fell from the building frame yesterday as he attempted to avoid a steel beam that swung toward him.

Another rigger, Howard Seik of Hookstown R. D. 1 successfully avoided the beam and escaped injury.

They were putting the beams in place for the building in the yards of the St. Joseph Lead Co. plant outside of town.

Two of the Keenan children are married, the others live at home.

BULLETINS!

Washington (AP)—The AFL-CIO Ethical Practices Committee today called new hearings on charges that the Teamsters and Bakers unions are corruptly dominated.

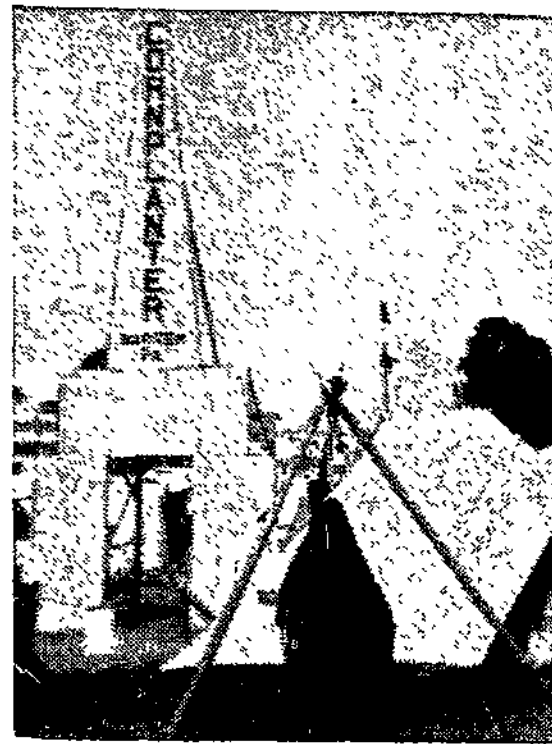

London (AP)—Moscow radio announced today that Soviet Communist party boss Nikita Khrushchev has conferred with Yugoslav Vice Presidents Alexander Rankovic and Edvard Kardelj.

Cairo (AP)—President Nasser's government today wrote into law its promise not to discriminate against any Suez Canal users—and its adherence to the 1838 Constantinople Convention which it uses to bar Israel shipping from the waterway.

London (AP)—The Soviet disarmament delegation has promised to ponder a British proposal that working committee be named to begin a detailed study of steps toward a first stage disarmament agreement.

Paris (AP)—Premier Maurice Bourges-Maumoury today staked his government's short life on his demand for special police powers to cope with Algerian terrorism in France itself.

Jamboree Troop Arriving Home Friday

Leader Vetoes Plan To Extend Civil Service

Harrisburg (AP)—Governor Leader today threw out the Republican counter-proposal to his suggested civil service extension for state employees. He branded the substitute a masquerade, fraud and diversionary approach.

In his veto message Leader contended the bill, approved by the Legislature over Democratic opposition, "is a transparent attempt to claim credit for accomplishing something it totally fails to accomplish."

He noted that "sincere attempts"—in his own expansion of state civil service law—to provide job security were allowed to die in committee.

School Aid Bill Is Cleared For House
Vote Next Week

Washington (AP)—The House Rules Committee today cleared for a House vote next week the controversial school aid bill.

The measure, backed by the administration, would authorize 1½ billion dollars of grants to states on a matching basis to construct schools. The money would be allotted over a five-year period at the rate of 300 million dollars annually, divided equally on the basis of school age population and the financial needs of the states.

The bill is similar to one killed last year after the House wrote in an amendment to withhold federal aid from segregated schools. The current bill contains no integration provision, but a move may be made on the House floor to add one.

In addition to the construction grants, the bill would authorize the federal government to purchase up to 750 million dollars of school construction bonds from local districts unable to find a market at reasonable interest rates. It also would authorize 150 million dollars in advances to reserve funds established by states to help assure payment of state school financing obligations.

Archery Becoming More Popular at Jamboree

Valley Forge, (AP)—One of the most popular sports at the Fourth National Boy Scout Jamboree is archery, and the man who has been instructing scouts in this art for over 25 years came up today with some staggering statistics.

Clayton B. Shenk, of Lancaster, Pa., said that so far at this encampment he has taught a total of 13,000 boys, and that in all 78,000 arrows have been sped to the target.

"Best of all," he said, "we haven't had a single mishap."

Body of Aga Khan Is Ferried
Across Nile On a Barge to the Ancient Egyptian Land of Dead

By ANTOINE YARIED

Aswan, Egypt, (AP)—The body of Aga Khan III was ferried across the Nile on a barge today to the ancient Egyptian land of the dead. There burial will take place tomorrow in a tomb on the west bank.

The body arrived at the improvised Aswan airport from Cairo in the early afternoon and was taken in a red fire engine to a barge waiting on the Nile.

At Cairo airport, the plain white oak coffin was lifted from the plane that brought it from Switzerland and placed aboard a smaller Egyptian Airlines plane. Then it was flown to Aswan, the little town 500 miles up the Nile where the Aga spent so many happy winters.

The Ismaili Moslem leader's beautiful French widow, the Begum, wept continuously as she stepped from the funeral plane at Aswan airport to receive the condolences of her husband's followers from two continents.

Pakistanis in fur caps, Burmese in pink head scarfs and Indian women in saris knelt in the airport visitors' lounge and kissed the hand of Aga Khan IV, the old Aga's 20-year-old grandson and successor.

The body was taken to the Aga Khan's unused villa on top of a red granite hill. Waiting to meet the party were more than 300 Ismaili Moslems from points as far apart as the Belgian Congo and Burma.

Tomorrow's funeral will be held in the Aswan mosque. Then the dead leader will be buried in a temporary grave inside the courtyard of the villa. A permanent mausoleum will be built later.

Business Man Is Victim of Crash At
New Castle Airport

New Castle (AP)—A prominent New Castle businessman was killed yesterday in a helicopter crash at the New Castle Airport.

William Milson, 55, was thrown from the battered wreckage and died almost immediately. He owned a Gulf Refining Corp. distributorship in the area, several gasoline service stations and a New Castle motel.

The pilot, Calvin Alston of Cranford, N. J., suffered a head injury and was admitted to Jamieson Memorial Hospital. He was reported in fair condition.

A Civil Aeronautics Board investigation will be held to determine cause of the crash.

Although no one saw the craft plunge to the ground several persons said they heard the engine sputtering.

A short time before the crash, Alston had left Miss Lynn Holden of Milwaukee, who is "Miss Wisconsin" in the Miss America contest, and Kay Neumann, a Pittsburgh television personality, at a New Castle supermarket for a promotion.

Penn'a Automotive Association Hails Sunday Closing Law

Final enactment of the "Sunday Closing Bill" which came with the signature of Gov. George M. Leader to the measure approved by both branches of the legislature was hailed by Edwin W. Parkinson, Harrisburg, assistant manager of the Pennsylvania Automotive Association, as "one of the most popular legislative proposals ever proposed by the new car dealers' group".

Parkinson said of the new law sponsored by Representatives Joseph A. Igo (Easton), Thomas J. McCormack (Philadelphia), and Reginald P. Stummel (Allentown), which applies only to the sale of new and used cars on Sunday in the Commonwealth.

"We consider the Sunday Closing Bill one of the most important steps in the promotion of good employer - employee relations made in recent years. It assures our salesmen they will have the same opportunity for rest and recreation on Sunday as enjoyed by salesmen in other businesses."

Parkinson said it has long been the desire of the majority of dealers to close on Sunday, but because a few insisted on remaining open and due to the highly competitive nature of the automobile retail business, they were forced to open their own salesrooms.

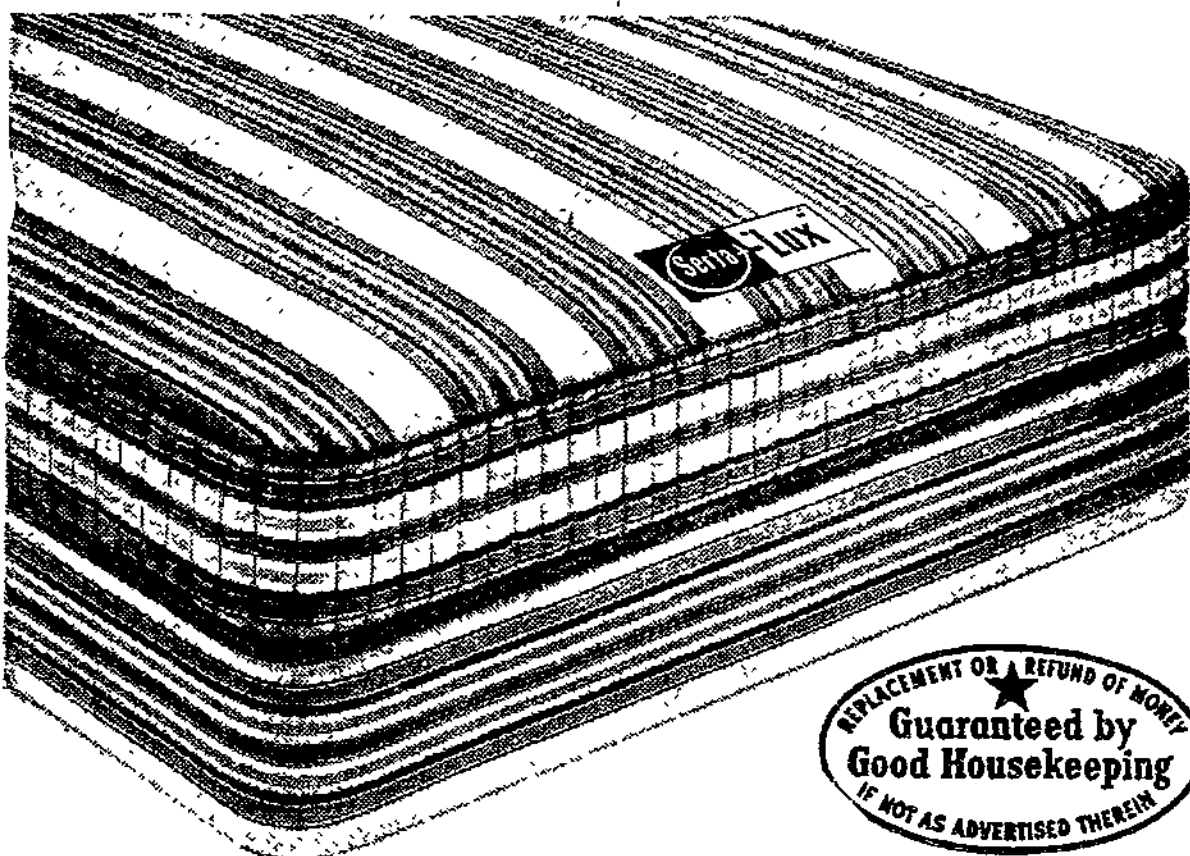

"There has been no really good reason why an automobile dealership should be open seven days a week since all, both for the sale of new and used cars, are open six days a week for many more hours than most other retail business establishments," the PAA spokesman explained.

The first Sunday affected by this new law will be July 14, 1957.

The law provides that information on a violation may be brought within 72 hours after an alleged offense, but "not thereafter".

Conviction on a first offense would result in a fine not exceeding $100. A second or any subsequent offense within a period of one year after conviction for a first offense would result in a fine not exceeding $200 or imprisonment not exceeding 30 days.

American Red Cross Officials Confronted With Huge Task In Aiding Victims of Hurricane

Through Warren County Red Cross Chapter, ARC President Alfred M. Gruenther has pledged his organization's continuing support to the thousands of persons in Louisiana and Texas numbered as victims of Hurricane Audrey.

Don Stout, operations director, indicates a thorough survey of the Cameron parish alone reveals nearly 1,200 houses completely destroyed, 400 others with major damage, and hundreds of farm buildings damaged and destroyed.

A special advisory committee of community leaders is helping process applications for Red Cross aid, with requests coming in at the rate of 250 a day from the 20 Louisiana parishes and four Texas counties hit by the storm.

Recipients have had a hard time distinguishing between those needing help and those providing it, since many victims are aiding the Red Cross workers, leaving their posts only to attend funerals of loved ones.

Approximately 2,000 lined up for three meals daily at the Red Cross kitchen in Cameron, thousands of others were fed from mobile canteens at Creole, Cameron and Lake Charles, and doughnuts, coffee and fruit juices were served workers and victims on the scene.

Estimates place at 3,000 or more the families who will seek Red Cross help in replacing furniture and equipment, rebuilding or restoring their homes, farms, boats, or other means of livelihood, and in paying for medical and nursing care.

This long-term job is expected to continue for many weeks, General Gruenther states, and is complicated by the fact that transportation and communication facilities have not yet been restored and the health situation in Cameron is still precarious to all concerned in Operation Audrey.

Quoting Roscoe Drummond in his New York Herald-Tribune column, "The Red Cross Serves Again":

To the Red Cross, while disaster is never routine, it is not unusual. Since 1950 alone, the Red Cross has gone into action to cope with the human consequences of 59 disasters when nature has run amuck. For such relief and restoration it has expended $82,840,000 in seven years.

"Hurricane Audrey is straining its budget to the breaking point. For those who see this tragedy at first hand (and Mr. Drummond did), it is impossible to believe it will strain the humane instincts of the American people."

Timely Reminder On Baldness; It's Too Late If Hair's Gone

By ARTHUR EDSON
Washington, (AP) — All those newfangled problems around, such as whether our bombs are clean or dirty, and still many men cling to an old-fashioned worry.
"Men spend 50 million dollars a year—maybe more—trying to keep from going bald," Lynn Akers said, "and most of it is wasted."
"They don't think about their hair until it's too late," Ray F. Brougham said.
Akers and Brougham are men who would worry if other men didn't worry about going bald. Akers is president and Brougham is general manager of hair and scalp clinics here and abroad.
They were here on a field trip, unofficially observing official baldness, which in Washington is widespread and bipartisan.
"Many men refuse to believe that you can't grow hair," Akers said. "Yet no matter what you may hear or read, once the hair is dead, there's no way to grow it again. The American Medical Assn. says you can't grow it. The federal trade commission says you can't grow it."
"About the best that can be said is this: If you start soon enough, I'd say in 70 per cent of the cases baldness can be prevented."
Akers wishes he could have a hair to hair talk with every young man in the country.

"I'd tell them that the greatest crime in uncleanness. I've known men who wouldn't step out of the house without taking a morning shower and yet they'll go weeks without washing their hair."
"Weeks?" Brougham said. "Months."
Akers has no formula for the correct number of shampoos.
"But I'd say even a man in an air conditioned office should wash his hair every five days," he said.
In addition to more frequent scrubbing, Akers prescribes vigorous brushing.
"And the brushing should be done the opposite way from the way most men do it," he said. "It should be from the back of the neck up. Do you realize we move every part of our body except the scalp?"
Akers' hair, though receding a mite at the temples, looked well scrubbed and healthy. Brougham, of hairier stock, had a first rate mop.
A final note: What about President Eisenhower? Could anything be done for him?
"Nothing," Akers said. "His hair is gone for good. But I'll bet you anything he has tried to find some cure for baldness."
"He's a human being, isn't he?" Brougham said.

OPEN MEETINGS

Somewhat overlooked this June when lawmakers in Harrisburg adjourned and broke for the door, was the fact that they left behind them on the statutes Act No. 213 which stipulates in no uncertain terms that any and all meetings of any governing body is open to the public, including all records. The law also states that proper notification of the meetings must be given at least three days ahead of time in the newspaper.

In effect, this means the end of the so-called "executive session" where the group voted a recess of varying length and then repaired to an ante chamber to handle the matter with no words minced. This has now been outlawed, legislatively speaking. But it would appear that the law is only going to mean more informal sub-committee sessions prior to the actual public meeting.

Governing bodies affected by the statute are listed under Section 1 of the act as: The Board of County Commissioners of any county, the council of any city, borough or incorporated town, the Board of Commissioners of any township of the first class, the Board of Supervisors of any township of the second class, the School Board of any school district, or the Board, Commission or other governing body of the Pennsylvania Turnpike Commission, or of any state or municipal authority or similar organization created by or pursuant to a statute, which declares in substance that such organization performs or has for its purpose the performance of an essential government function and that its bonds shall not pledge the faith or credit or be obligations of the Commonwealth or of any political subdivision.

Section 4 of the law provides for a fine not less than $10 and not more than $25 plus costs for any member attending a session that is known not to be a "public meeting."

YOUR HEART FUND CONTRIBUTION

Contributions by the people of Warren county to the Heart Fund have helped make possible the awarding of $1,395,285 in grants to 225 scientists across the country who are conducting research on diseases of the heart and blood vessels.

This was announced today by Dr. L. W. Krespan, president of the Warren County Heart Association's program of research, education and community services for heart patients, more than half is devoted to support of scientific studies.

At least 50% of the sum the national headquarters receives from the Heart Fund campaign is set aside for support of scientific studies, while in the past two years, research expenditures have actually gone over 55%.

A MERITED CITATION

Last fall, in one of the most celebrated ocean ditchings in aviation history, a huge Pan American Strato-cruiser was set down in mid-Pacific beside a weather ship. Within 17 minutes all passengers and crew were aboard the vessel, and three minutes later the plane sank.

It was recognized at the time for what it was—a rare feat of skill and intelligence on the part of the crew, and a remarkably cooperative rescue effort on the part of the weather ship.

Now their heroism has gained formal recognition from the Civil Aeronautics Board, which praises both crews in its report on the accident.

It credits the plane crew with averting a major air disaster by its "calm and efficient control of the situation." It particularly commended the pilot and his aids for diagnosing the ailments which unhappily struck two of the plane's four engines as it headed from Hawaii to San Francisco.

In the board's view, the crew acted with model efficiency at every stage of the difficult and dangerous ditching operation. And it was fully mindful of the superb help given by the sailors aboard the Coast Guard cutter Pontchartrain.

Such commendations are not only deserved, but wisely offered as an encouragement to others to deal similarly with emergencies of this character.

THOUGHTS FOR TODAY

Because I will publish the name of the Lord: ascribe ye greatness unto our God—Deut. 32:3.

Is there any other seat of the Divinity than the earth, sea, air, the heavens, and virtuous minds? Why do we seek God elsewhere? He is whatever you see; He is wherever you move.

—Marcus Lucan.

Here and There

The many friends of Mrs. Melba S. Grady, who formerly resided at 414 Hazel street, will be interested in the following communication just received from her at RD 1, Kane, where she is residing with the family of E. Siggins: "Dear Editor—I know my thanks to you for the nice way in which you published my poem 'Catalpa Trees' some time ago, is late in reaching you but just the same very much appreciated. Two of my friends sent me copies of this poem. One especially calling my attention to the nice way in which it had been published, and also the 'foot note' you added. Since my health is not so good and I felt that I might not be able to endure the heat and dust storms of another Nebraska summer, not to mention my desire to be back east, I made plans with the Siggins family to come and be a paying guest in their home for an indefinite period of time, so I arranged a flight from North Platte to Erie and on to Kane by motor. Now I am duly installed in this quiet home, a suburb of Kane, the only members of the family being Mr. and Mrs. Siggins and their young son 15½ years old. I find the climate here very good. With all good wishes, sincerely, Melba S. Grady."

Heading the list of distinguished visitors who will be in Warren for the 28th District American Legion convention Saturday will be Department Commander Joseph Gavononis, who has an outstanding record in the military service as well as in civic activities. Enlisting in the U. S. Army in 1942, he served a period of 47 months, 15 of which were spent in the European, African and Middle East theatres. His record of service, since he became a member of The American Legion, is studded with achievement. He has served as Commander of his Post (McDermott Post No. 452): served two years as 17th District Commander and one year as the Central Vice Commander and now serves in the highest office within the Department, that of Department Commander. He was elected in Philadelphia, July 1956 without opposition. Commander Gavononis is very active in Civic affairs and in the Boy Scout program as well as many youth programs and movements, he is a member of the Chamber of Commerce of Sullivan County, a member of the Local Selective Service Board, holds membership in Delta Sigma Phi Fraternity, is a member also of the Phi Delta Kappa and Phi Mu Alpha music honorary.

Here's one for the book: Lightning destroyed 700 feet of newly laid concrete pavement on a construction job in Elk County, the Department of Highways reported today. During a terrific weekend storm near Ridgway lightning struck an exposed steel reinforcing bar, raced through connecting bars and exploded all bars under the section. The concrete pavement, nine inches thick, collapsed. The Highway is U. S. Route 219, which traversed west-central Pennsylvania from the Maryland line to the New York line. M. and S. Construction Company, Inc., East Pittsburgh, has been rebuilding the 7.08-mile section, a Federal-aid project. Workers are tearing up the damaged stretch, and final segment of one of the two new lanes being laid. The other lane has not yet been laid. Eleven holes, each about two feet by two feet, were torn in the pavement. The damaged section contained about 2,000 tons of concrete and 15 tons of steel.

As usual the ball game proved one of the highlights of the joint family picnic between Kiwanis clubs of Kane, Youngsville and Warren held last evening at delightful Chapman Park, which, incidentally, is becoming more popular each year as a recreation center. Pitted against each other were teams representing Warren and a combination Youngsville-Kane nine. Five innings were played after which the official scorers, with the aid of a computing machine, started a small-sized demonstration by announcing that the contest ended in a victory for the Warren club by a score of 23 to 13. The game marked the "professional" debut of young Pam Potter, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dave Potter. She qualified for the position of short center field with the Warren team, beating out a host of hot contenders. To Dick Best went the honor of hitting both the shortest and longest home runs, it being figured that the shortest one was about three feet, and the longest almost became lost in the creek. The manager of the Warren team also kept himself in the limelight due to the fact that he was constantly searching for his lollipop. Considering the fact that the game was played without umpires or catchers it was finished with a minimum of arguments. Cecil Winans and Frank Wood, two veterans in Kiwanis activities, both distinguished themselves, both in the field and at the bat.

Fight for Hawaiian Shipping Sparks Monopoly Headache

BY PETER EDSON
NEA Washington Correspondent

WASHINGTON—(NEA)—A fight for Hawaiian shipping rights between two U.S. companies illustrates many of the problems in the current round of congressional investigations into over-concentration in American industry, freedom of competition and regulation of monopolies.

This case hangs on a recent Federal Maritime Board decision denying Pacific Far East Line the right to have ships on its unsubsidized U.S.-Guam-Japan route call at Hawaii three times a month to pick up or discharge cargo.

Matson Navigation Co. has provided service between the U.S. Pacific Coast and Hawaii for over 70 years. With an investment of 35 million dollars, it has built up its business to the point that it now handles 95 per cent of the traffic.

Since Hawaii is American territory, this route is considered "coastwise" shipping. As such it is entitled to certain protection under the American Merchant Marine Act.

MATSON DOES NOT receive a subsidy for its Hawaii service, though it is subsidized on its wholly owned Oceanic Steamship Co. route to Australia. Pacific Far East Line also receives a subsidy on another route to Japan and Hong Kong.

The question raised by PFEL on the Matson Hawaii service is whether it constitutes a monopoly which should be opened to further competition.

One additional factor here is that three of Matson's directors are high officials on three of Hawaii's "Big Five" companies that have dominated the islands' agricultural industries for many years. Practically all of Hawaii's sugar and pineapples move to the U.S. in Matson ships.

Three years ago American President Lines and Pacific Far East applied to Federal Maritime Board for the right to carry cargo to and from Hawaii. Later APL withdrew.

AFTER A YEAR and a half of hearings, 7,500 pages of testimony and 1,750 exhibits, FMB Examiner F. J. Horan found that PFEL's application would not result in unfair competition. But the full board reversed the examiner's recommendation.

Federal Maritime Board operates as an independent agency within Department of Commerce. Its decisions are not subject to approval by the president, as are Civil Aeronautics Board's.

But refusing to be stopped by the Maritime Board's two-to-one opinion against it, Pacific Far East promptly filed application for review and took the case to court in two suits.

In District of Columbia Federal Court PFEL has filed suit against the three Maritime Board members individually, with Secretary of Commerce Sinclair Weeks thrown in as a fourth defendant, for supporting a "near perfect monopoly." In District Court of Appeals, PFEL is suing to have the board's decision reversed.

THERE HAVE BEEN only three suits filed against the reorganized Maritime Board. In 1953 American President Lines sued to amend a subsidy granted to Pacific Transport Lines and Pacific Far East. APL lost. Two years ago APL sued Maritime Board over a definition of capital employed in determination of its subsidy rate. Again APL lost in District Court and on appeal.

Isbrandtsen Lines sued the board in 1955 to have a subsidy denied American Export Lines because of its pooling agreement on carrying Egyptian cotton. This suit is still pending.

These cases are all typical of what the government gets into in trying to maintain competitive enterprise and prevent the growth of monopolies. The dividing lines aren't clear.

MR. AND MRS. GARY WAYNE HUCKABONE

A candlelight service at 7:30 p. m. July 8 in First Methodist church united in marriage Carol Ann, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. P. H. Pittman of 3 Biddle street, and Gary Wayne, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Huckabone, Warren RD 2.

Dr. A. Culmer Schultz performed the double ring ceremony in a setting of palms, white mums, glads, stalks and baby's breath. Traditional wedding music was provided by George A. Johnson at the organ and by Lois Tipton, Tidoute, who sang "Through the Years" and "I Love Thee".

Carrying a cascade of yellow roses, centered with a white orchid, the bride wore white rosepoint lace over satin, the V-neckline of the fitted basque accented with applique lace motifs and embroidered with sequins and seed pearls. Fitted sleeves tapered over the hands and a hand-clipped, scalloped hemline finished the gracefully-buffed ballroom skirt. The sequin and seed pearl trim was repeated on the scalloped crown of lace and nylon tulle which held her fingertip veil of imported silk illusion.

The bride was given in marriage by her father and had as maid of honor Patty Bengtson, wearing blue nylon chiffon. Her gown was styled with lace midriff and shirred shoulder fold flowing into a panel down the back of the ballerina skirt, while a petal bandeau of blue tulle held her circular veil. Her white colonial bouquet was centered with pink Sweetheart roses.

Clair Wood was best man for his brother-in-law; ushers were Richard Huckabone, Warren, and Norman Haight, Youngsville.

Wearing pink Sweetheart roses and white accessories, Mrs. Pittman was attired in aqua voile, Mrs. Huckabone in pink lace.

The reception for 140 guests followed in Dunham Parlors of the church, where flowers and white candles formed a setting for the wedding cake served by Mrs. Marian Byers. Margaret and Pauline Pittman poured; Mrs. Dorothy Copeland was at the punch bowl; Mrs. Virginia Wood managed the guest book; Susan Barone, Roberta Johnson, Betty Huckabone and Jean Schuler were aides.

Out of town guests were from Gladbeck, West Falm, Germany; Banning, Calif.; Rochester and Buffalo, N. Y.; Redcliffe, Sheffield, Tiona, Pittsfield, Youngsville, Irvine, Corry, Grand Valley, and Tidoute.

For a wedding trip to New York and Atlantic City, the bride chose a blue sheath dress, white accessories and white orchid.

Returning July 15, the newlyweds are at home in Warren RD 2. Graduate of Warren High in 1956, the bride is employed in Oakland cemetery office. Mr. Huckabone is employed by National Forge following two years in the Navy.

Hostesses who honored the bride-elect were Mrs. Ethel Huckabone and Mrs. Ethel Wood; Mrs. Marian Byers and daughter, Maxine; Patti Bengtson and Sandra Burke. The rehearsal party was given by the senior Huckabones at their home in Starbrick.

TRY-CO. CLASS

Youngsville—A reunion at Wilder Field Monday evening was attended by 25 members and former members of the "Try-Co" Class of the EUB Sunday school, the occasion honoring a former member, Mrs. Robert Patch, of Modesto, Calif., who, with her husband and family, is visiting in this vicinity after an absence of 14 years.

The picnic supper, in the form of a roast, was enjoyed in the grove, after which a short business session was held in the clubhouse in charge of Mrs. Jeanne McKinney, president. Mrs. Ethel Jackson led devotions, followed by games and visiting. Out of town guests, besides the guest of honor, included Mrs. Mildred Ebel, Buffalo, N. Y.; Mrs. Gertrude Smith and Mrs. Jeannette Conklin, Warren.

DUCHANE REUNION

Wildcat Park in Ludlow was scene of the 1957 DuChaine reunion, with an attendance of 40 relatives from Toronto, New York City, Westfield, Mayville, Warren, Mt. Jewett and Tiona. Howard DuChaine, Mayville, N. Y., was elected president; Lela DuChaine, secretary.

The youngest in attendance was Edward John Allen, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Allen, Sr., of Warren; oldest, Harry DuChaine, Toronto, Ont. Three births and one marriage were reported since the last reunion.

Next year's reunion will be held the third Sunday in July at Mayville Park on Chautauqua Lake.

Do Away With Television For a Peaceful Summer

WANT to give your children the kind of lazy, happy summer you remember from your own childhood? Well, here are a few suggestions for how it can be done. First of all, make it a TV-less summer. Just getting rid of the continual noise of gunshots and canned laughter will make your home seem like a suddenly restful, peaceful place.

And instead of the kids sitting sprawled in front of the TV set all day long, they'll have to start thinking of ways of entertaining themselves.

Building a playhouse in the back yard, cultivating a small garden plot, playing baseball or selling lemonade to the neighborhood kids will keep them happier than anything TV can offer.

Cut down on your own chauffeuring so that you can have a little more time to help the children bake cookies, make a freezer of homemade ice cream or find some old dresses of your own and some old high-heeled shoes for the little girls to play in.

If you aren't driving one child to a playground, another to a swimming pool, and another across town to play with a friend you'll have some time to keep them busy and happy at home.

START PROJECT

START at least one family project in house or yard so that there is a little work and accomplishment mixed in with the hours of loafing.

Plan some picnics away from home. Eating on your own patio or in your own back yard isn't the same thing for children as packing a picnic meal in a basket and exploring country roads until you find a picnic spot.

No wonder the summer months seem to drive so many modern mothers close to distraction, with the TV blaring, the kids demanding to be chauffeured here and there and never any end to the noise and confusion.

But old-fashioned summers can be duplicated by any mother who is so fed up she is willing to make a change.

Scandinavian Influence Spreads

BY KAY SHERWOOD, NEA Staff Writer

WELL, geared to the tastes of contemporary-minded young homemakers, Scandinavian designs are spreading an ever-widening influence over American home furnishings.

From furniture to floor coverings and all the accessories in between, from expensive exclusive design to moderately priced adaptations, the Scandinavian touch can be found. It covers modern treatments of traditional folk art and the latest work of contemporary designers.

More furniture manufacturers have "Scandinavian inspired" collections, as you'll note this fall. Most of them reflect the work of the great Danish and Swedish cabinetmakers—Finn Juhl, Hans Wegner, Arne Jacobsen, to mention three.

The molded, tapered arm and leg; the sculptured or sloped back; the cantilevered seat; the soft sheen of oil finishes—these are some of the distinctive characteristics. The light, off-the-floor scaling of much upholstered furniture also bears a kinship to Danish designs.

ADD TO this the modern interest in traditional folk art. I doubt if early Swedish cottage artists, decorating their furniture and walls with painted patterns and enriching their fabrics with colorful embroideries, could foresee their use in mid-20th century homes.

For example, there's a new wool carpet patterned with brown squiggles against a soft green ground. The squiggles were lifted from Swedish painted patterns, rescaled and worked into a block-like motif for the rug. According to the stylist, the color scheme of brown and green was inspired by the pastoral countryside.

Similar adaptations can be seen in fabrics and wallpapers.

PERHAPS ONE reason why the Scandinavian influence shows no sign of losing its vitality is that it is so widely represented in moderately priced furnishings. Neither stark nor fussy, most of them are well designed and easy to live with.

The slim, clean lines of this furniture make it an ideal foil for decorative pieces such as gay woven runners or painted knickknacks. With such simplicity in her furniture, the homemaker can afford to use elaborate decorative touches.

The homemaker who prefers to stick to one theme in her furnishings can carry out the Scandinavian idea from the chair in the living room to the tableware in the dining room, set perhaps with place mats she's embroidered herself in updated Swedish motifs—all easy to live with.

Swedish motif from traditional painted patterns is worked in brown against green on wool carpet. Embroidered table runner and painted bowl are also adaptations of traditional motifs. The wood table, chest and chair reflect modern Danish design.

Antlerless Deer Hunting Permits May Be Limited

Harrisburg, (AP)—The Game Commission reported today that it has agreed with the State County Treasurers' Assn. that the issuing of antlerless deer hunting permits will be limited to six per individual.

Applications for the special $1.15 licenses for the special Dec. 16-17-18 doe hunt will be available Sept. 15 from county treasurers, Game Commission personnel, and regular hunting license issuing agents. The license sale will begin Oct. 7.

The licenses themselves will be sold only by county treasurers at the county seat. They are good only in the county where bought.

Mr. J. Golden, deputy director of the commission, said the officials of the treasurer's organization met Friday with Dr. Logan J. Bennett, executive director, and agreed upon the regulations.

During 1955, the last time the game commission held a doe season, county treasurers placed a limit of 15 upon the number of applications any individual could present. Each has to be signed by an eligible hunter.

Golden explained that the new limit of six will permit hunters to obtain at one time licenses for all members of a family or camp group.

At its July meeting the commission, in deciding to hold a 1957 doe season, authorized the sale of 335,500 special permits or about 30 per cent above the 1955 total of 240,250. A county-by-county breakdown for this season shows most counties increased accordingly.

Counties that will have the most licenses available remain about the same as two years ago. The GROWTH OF FREEDOM—The rapid growth of the voice of freedom is evidenced in these then-and-now views of the facilities of Radio Free Europe. In 1950, the original transmitter, called "Barbara" (top) was housed in a trailer and went on the air, broadcasting from the woods of Lampertheim, near Frankfurt, Germany. The present headquarters (bottom) of the agency is located in Munich, and was completed with funds contributed by millions of Americans to the annual Crusade for Freedom. The building, which houses some 1,400 employees, representing 31 nationalities, is designed so that it can be converted to use as a hospital. "Barbara" is still in use as a part of the RFE transmitter station at Lisbon, Portugal.

top five: McKean 16,500; Elk, Warren and Forest 15,000 each; and Potter 11,000.

In 1955 the top counties were Warren, McKean and Elk, all with 12,000 each.

Golden explained that in order to "try to bring the deer herd into balance" the allocation for several counties such as Schuylkill, Carbon, Columbia and Forest had been increased beyond the boost in the total allocation.

Under the law doe permits will not be sold to non-resident hunters until Nov. 16.

The breakdown by counties concerning the number of licenses to be issued lists Warren to receive 15,000; Venango 6,000; Forest 15,000; Elk 15,000.

For the Fall Bridesmaid: Color

Dress Reflects Autumn Glory

BY GAILE DUGAS NEA Women's Editor

NEW YORK—(NEA)—Though the bride may tuck her beautiful dress away in folds of white tissue paper, bridesmaids usually have party plans for their dresses.

The girl who's a bridesmaid in autumn will have her eyes cast in the direction of coming holiday parties just as the June bridesmaid had in mind country club parties. And the autumn bridesmaid is lucky in this, for most fall brides like vivid color in their bridesmaids' dresses as contrast to the drama of the white bridal gown.

The bridesmaid who's going places after the wedding (maybe with her own wedding in mind) will cast her vote for a dress that stresses simplicity of line and rich color.

We show two such dresses there, one in the short and one in the floor length. Both are woven of chromspun acetate, a fabric that will keep its color indefinitely.

Short dress in satin (left) has topping of lace that's scalloped and banded just below the bustline. The very full skirt is made with two back panels. Color for this is gold.

The formal bridesmaid (right) wears a gown of taffeta in brilliant green. Her dress has a V-vent neckline, slim bodice and skirt that keeps its bell shape through an underskirt of net ruffles.

Rate Hike Sought By Manufacturers Light & Heat Co.

Manufacturers Light and Heat Company today asked for a $894,000 rate increase from some 250,000 Pennsylvania customers.

The increase is designed to cover the Pennsylvania portion of a $1,407,000 wholesale gas rate increase the company will start paying Texas Eastern Transmission Corporation on November 10.

Today's action will raise a March 12 company request for new rates by another 5 cents a month for non-heating customers. It will add an average of about 17 cents a month to the March 12 rates for heating customers.

Manufacturers requested that the effective date of the rates proposed today, which would normally be 60 days after the date of filing, be suspended until November 10. The rates the company asked for on March have been suspended until November 13.

Manufacturers' March 12 request for new rates was made with two applications. One, like today's request, covers wholesale gas rate increases by five pipeline gas suppliers and amounts to some $1,500,000. The second application amounts to about $5,000,000. This covers higher labor costs, higher prices on materials and supplies, and is designed to allow the company a larger return on its plant investments.

Overall, the two March 12 requests would raise non-heating customers' bills 74 cents a month and increase heating customers' bills an average of $1.90 a month.

A company official said that the Texas Eastern wholesale rate request was made May 10th, after Manufacturers' earlier application. He pointed out that the company is intervening in opposition to the wholesale rate requests of all its pipeline gas suppliers.

ON THE JOB

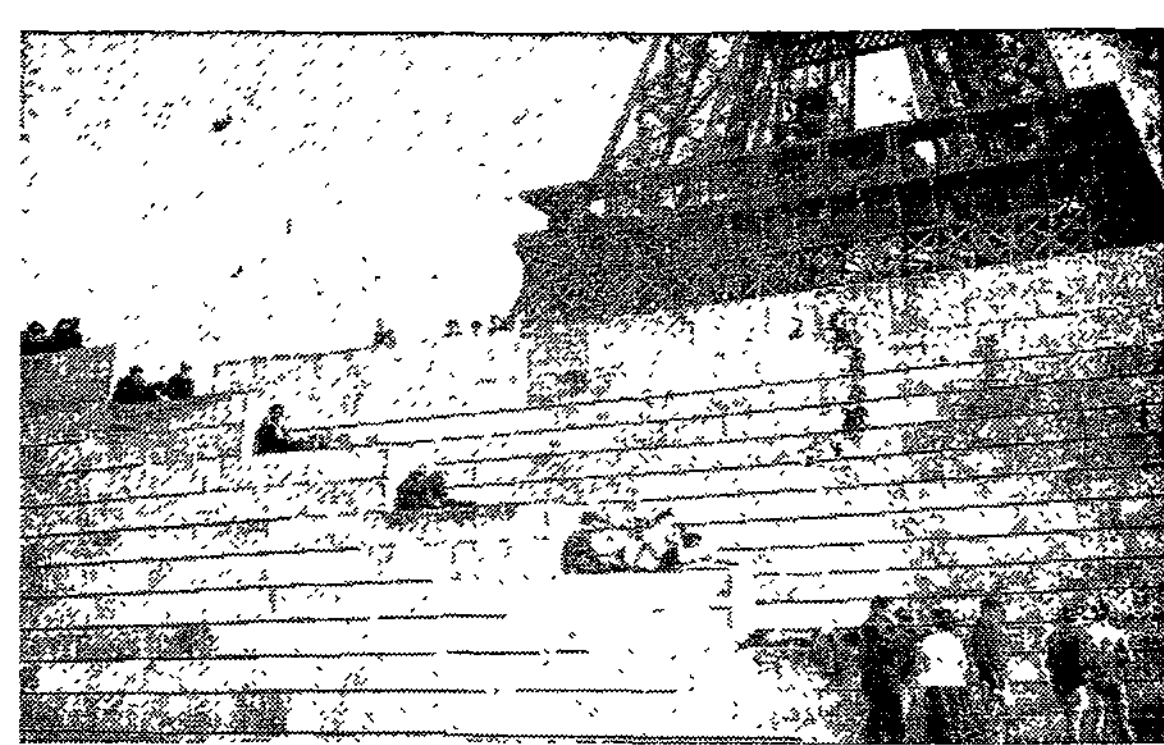

NECKING SESSION—In a neck-and-neck fight to the finish, famished flamingos scramble for tidbits of food tossed on the grass at Huntington, N. Y. While four of the birds were wasting their time pecking away at one another, the fifth got its neck down to where it would do the most good and gobbled up the tasty morsel.

CANADIAN BEAUTY IN PARIS—Curvaceous Canadian cutie Susan Laberge, 24, is a pretty sight as she waves a sunny greeting to the French capital. Recently elected "1957 Queen of Canadian Elegance," the honey-haired lovely is in Paris to make a series of television films.

COOL CHIMP—As the mercury boiled up near the 90-degree mark for the fourth consecutive day, Chinita the chimp cooled off by taking a refreshing dip in the trout fishing pond at Palisades Amusement Park, N. J.

WALL FLOWERS—For those Parisians who are stuck in the city for the weekend, the base of the famed Eiffel Tower on the bank of the Seine River provides a wonderful spot for relaxing in the air and sunshine. Some of the fellows apparently plan to go for a swim.

BEARING THE HEAT—Mischa, one of the London Zoo's polar bears, wears a pensive expression as he takes things easy. He is convinced that the only sensible course to take in summer weather is one of passive resistance to the scorching sun.

FAITH ON THE MARCH—Over the worn cobblestones strewn with flowers, priests move through the main square of Toledo, Spain, in the traditional Roman Catholic procession of Corpus Christi. The streets and balconies nearby are jammed by crowds of onlookers for the march, the most famed of its kind in Spain, and one of the best-known in Europe.

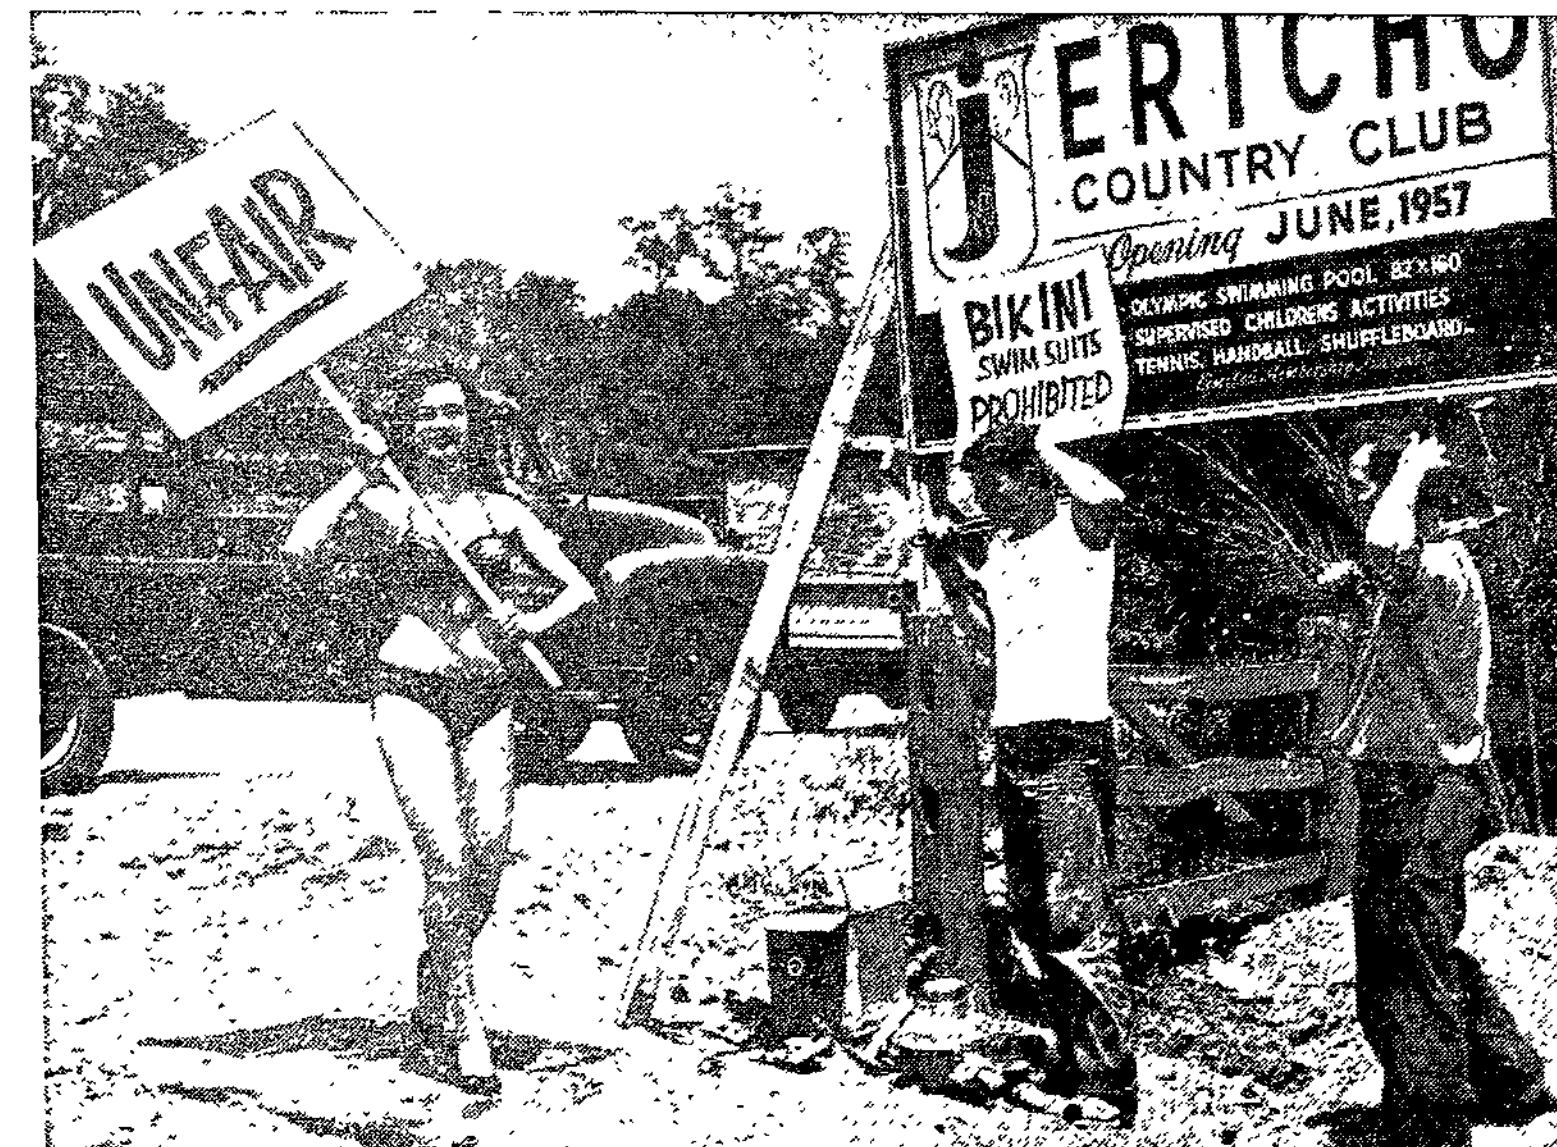

DANGEROUS CURVES—Modesty takes some dangerous curves in Cecil Chapman's glittering gold silk chiffon lame gown whose daring plunge neckline is matched only by the deeply slit skirt. The gown, with fitted bodice, has a "down to here" deep neckline that laces through rhinestone eyelets.

END OF THE RACE—The crews of the Club Krasnoe Znamia (foreground) of the Soviet Union and the University of Cornell rest on their oars after competing against each other in a heat of the Grand Challenge Cup at the Henley Regatta, Henley on Thames, Oxfordshire, England. Cornell won by one length in six minutes and 30 seconds.

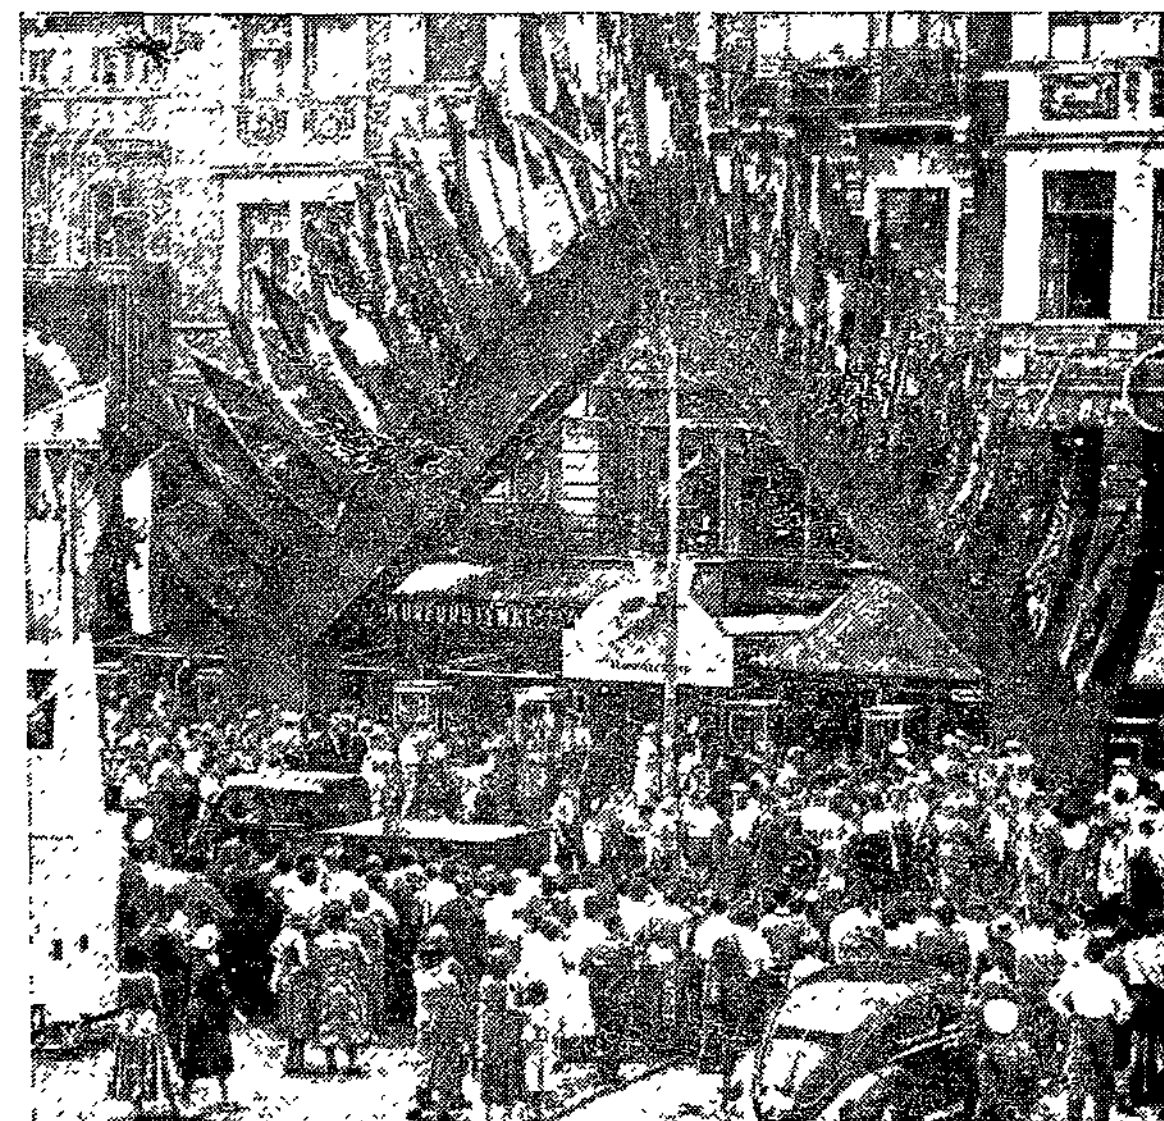

REAR WINDOW—Private enterprise doesn't require any expenses for rent, as far as this enterprising capitalist is concerned, since he carries his shop on his back in Paris. A traveling glazier, he carries his supply of glass for repairing windows in a special frame as he walks the streets.

STRIKING BEAUTY—Workmen scratch their heads wondering who would be unfair to Kitty Dolan, who is picketing the Jericho, N. Y., Country Club after sign went up prohibiting the wearing of bikini bathing suits. Kitty, the kind of girl who acts when she believes in something, halted traffic along the Jericho Turnpike during her picketing.

SITTING PRETTY—The air vent of the Greek liner New York serves as a good lookout for Steven Paul Menners, 1, as he gets his first view of New York. The youngster, from Middlesex, England, will stay with relatives in Chicago. Steven is a little too young to be impressed.

STAR GAZERS—Beneath a giant arch containing the flags of the participating nations, film fans crowd outside the headquarters of the international film festival at the Hotel Am Zoo in West Berlin to watch the stars arrive. Some 100 films from 42 nations were scheduled to be shown during the 12-day festival.

Gonzales Insists Tennis Pros Can Beat the Best Amateurs

By ED CORRIGAN
Forest Hills, N. Y., (AP)—"I've always said the pros could beat the best amateurs in the world," said professional tennis champion Pancho Gonzales, "but a lot of people laughed at me. I think we are proving it this week."

Big Pancho, who has temporarily put aside his money feud with promoter Jack Kramer, was referring to the going over he gave Ken Rosewall and Pancho Segura's victory over Tony Trabert in Tuesday's matches in Kramer's Tournament of Champions.

A couple of years ago, Trabert was regarded as perhaps the top amateur in the world. Then he joined the pros and Gonzales slaughtered him in their world tour.

PUBLISHER DIES—James M. Cox, newspaper publisher and unsuccessful Democratic nominee for president in 1920, died at his Dayton, Ohio, home at 87. He served three terms as Ohio's governor. He was elected to two-year terms in 1913, 1917 and 1919. He was defeated in the presidential race by another Ohio publisher, Warren G. Harding. Cox ran with Franklin D. Roosevelt.

Last winter, it was Rosewall who turned pro right after the Davis Cup matches and he became Gonzales' sacrificial lamb.

And yesterday, just to make it emphatic, Gonzales whipped Rosewall, 6-0, 8-6, 6-4, while Segura outlasted Trabert 6-4, 7-5, 9-11, 4-6, 7-5.

"The pros go onto the court with more confidence," said Gonzales, who joined the pay-for-play troupe in 1949. "If you have one big fault in your game, you'll lose on the pro circuit."

"Look at Rosewall and Trabert. It remains to be seen if they ever will become real top pros. But I'll tell you this. Rosewall doesn't have the power and Trabert is not fast enough."

"That's all they need—one flaw." Gonzales even had an analysis for Segura, a pro since 1947. The bandy-legged little Ecuadorian didn't set the world on fire as an amateur, but he has held his own ever since as a pro.

"Well, for one thing, there's no denying the fact that there were a lot stronger amateur fields in Segura's day," admitted Gonzales.

They Were Few---But Mighty

BY WILLIAM E. GILROY, D.D.
ON this date many Sunday schools will be studying a lesson about Gideon and his small band of warriors.

But I should like to write a little about another band, much smaller, but quite as amazing in faith and courage.

They, too, have left a great heritage, though much of the simplicity that they represented soon became overcast by more complex organization, and associations of church and state.

I refer to the Pilgrim Fathers, who came to Plymouth on the little ship, "The Mayflower," in 1620. Actually, these Pilgrims were not "fathers."

For, like many religious movements, and like that of Jesus and His disciples, the Pilgrims of the Mayflower were young people, and a tragic fact is that within a year of their coming to New England half of the 102 Pilgrims died.

A glorious fact is that, despite all the perils and hardships, when the survivors had a chance to return to England not one went back.

In the Boston area, where I have lived for many years, the chief interest and excitement recently has been concerned with the coming to Plymouth of the Mayflower II, a replica of the original Mayflower, which, after a summer on exhibition in New York, will be returned to Plymouth for a permanent berth to commemorate and restore something of the original coming of the Pilgrims.

One would not detract from the glory of this enterprise, or from the achievement of Captain Willard and his crew in bringing the little ship across the Atlantic.

The colorful details, too, are not to be minimized as they have been exploited in press, radio, and television.

But the most important emphasis has for the most part been lacking.

The greatness and importance of the original Mayflower was not the ship, nor the captain, nor the crew—it was in the passengers.

The Mayflower was chartered for the purpose of bringing to America a group of people seeking freedom for a special sort of faith and fellowship, for which apparently the original captain and crew had little regard, not at all sharing the Pilgrim faith.

What was that faith and fellowship that made those Pilgrims first leave their native England for Leyden in Holland, and then risk the perils of ocean and a hostile shore, that they might still be Englishmen?

It was simply a belief that there could be religious faith and fellowship through direct contact with Christ and the New Testament, without the intermediary or authority of either Pope or King.

When they sought to exercise that freedom in England, King James I said: "I will make them conform, or I will hary them out of the land."

He did hary them as exiles to Holland, but they were Englishmen as well as Christians, and they sought to bring up their families as Englishmen.

The deep spiritual significance of the Plymouth Pilgrims was the directness of their approach to Jesus and the New Testament. They were independents in this respect, in contrast with the Puritans, who were not opposed to a state church, and whose association with church and state brought persecution against Quakers and Baptists.

Trends today toward greatness and size and mergers are as evident in the churches as in other areas. Such trends are good insofar as they eliminate narrow and sectarian divisions, but they tend toward overemphasis upon authority and official control.

What the Plymouth Pilgrims emphasized is that the true church of Christ does not consist in size or authority, but that where two or three are gathered together with Christ in the midst there is the element of a true Christian church.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

Q—Can a Korea veteran, holding a GI term insurance policy that doesn't pay dividends, get the total disability income provision added to his policy so that he'll receive monthly payments in use he becomes totally disabled?

A—No. Under the law, the total disability income provision may not be added to nonparticipating Korean GI term insurance. It is limited to participating World War II GI policies that do earn dividends.

Q—I just received a rise in salary of $25 a month. I would like to use that extra money to apply to my GI home loan each month, so that I can pay it off ahead of time. Is this possible?

A—A GI home loan may be reduced by extra payments, without penalty. But the minimum extra-payment possible is the regular monthly payment, or $50, whichever is less. What you would do is save your salary raise and make an extra mortgage payment when the amount equals on monthly installment, or $100.

Q—I am more than half-way through a correspondence course under the Korean GI Bill, and my GI training entitlement has run out. Is it possible for my entitlement to be extended, so that I can complete my course?

A—Yes. So long as you have completed more than half of your correspondence course, your entitlement may be extended to the end of your particular course unit or for nine weeks—whichever is less.

Q—What is considered a full-time course for a young man going to college under the War Orphans Education program?

A—If he is taking undergraduate training, full-time consists of at least 14 semester hours a week. If he is in graduate training, VA will accept a certificate of the school as to whether his schooling is full-time.

Picnic at Chapman Park Much Enjoyed By Area Kiwanians

The picnic at Chapman State Park Wednesday afternoon and evening, sponsored jointly by Kiwanis clubs of Youngsville, Kane and Warren was well attended by members and their families from all three towns, and proved a most delightful affair.

Early comers were entertained during the afternoon with a program supervised by the Kane club members with prizes going to the winners, which provided much entertainment for old and young.

The picnic dinner arranged and supervised by members of the Warren club consisted of cold cuts, potato salad, baked beans, celery, olives, pickles, brown and white bread, cake, ice cream, coffee and pop.

Following the serving, drawings were held for the door prizes, being distributed to both adults and children. Evening entertainment consisted of horse shoe pitching for the less agile men, and softball with a team of Warren adults and children playing a nine picked from members and their families from Kane and Youngsville. The scorekeeper announced that Warren was the winner, but it is understood that a protest has been filed with the softball commissioner which may not be decided until the 1958 picnic.

Chairmen for the joint outing consisted of Bud Seekings, Youngsville; Bob Anstadt, Warren and Joe Galbo, Kane.

Youngsville Fair Plans Are Started

Youngsville — The Community Fair Board held an informal meeting Monday evening, with general discussion of plans for that fall event. There will be a parade, it is stated, and the building housing the skating rink will be used for commercial exhibits.

Another meeting is scheduled for next Monday evening, when it is hoped there will be a larger attendance and additional details may be worked out.

Guests of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Culver for a week are her brother, Clair Gibson, and daughter, Penny, of New York; also her sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Long, Lock Haven. On Sunday, the Culvers entertained Mr. and Mrs. Roy Newell and Murray Newell, Dunkirk, N. Y.

The Dallas Heights are home after a pleasant southern trip which included sightseeing in Washington, D. C.; touring in Virginia and Kentucky. In Virginia, they visited Natural Bridge and the Luray Caverns; on Sunday, they called at the Red Bird Mission, about 20 miles from Pineville, Ky.

Mr. and Mrs. Archie Jackson, with their son and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Roderick Jackson, are home after a visit with relatives in Connecticut.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Brown and children, Connie and Gary, with Mr. and Mrs. Donald Miller, recently enjoyed a trip to Harrisburg, Washington, D. C., Virginia and into Kentucky, where they visited Mrs. Brown's sister, Mrs. M. D. Teemley. Highlight spots were Gettysburg, Arlington Cemetery and Mount Vernon.

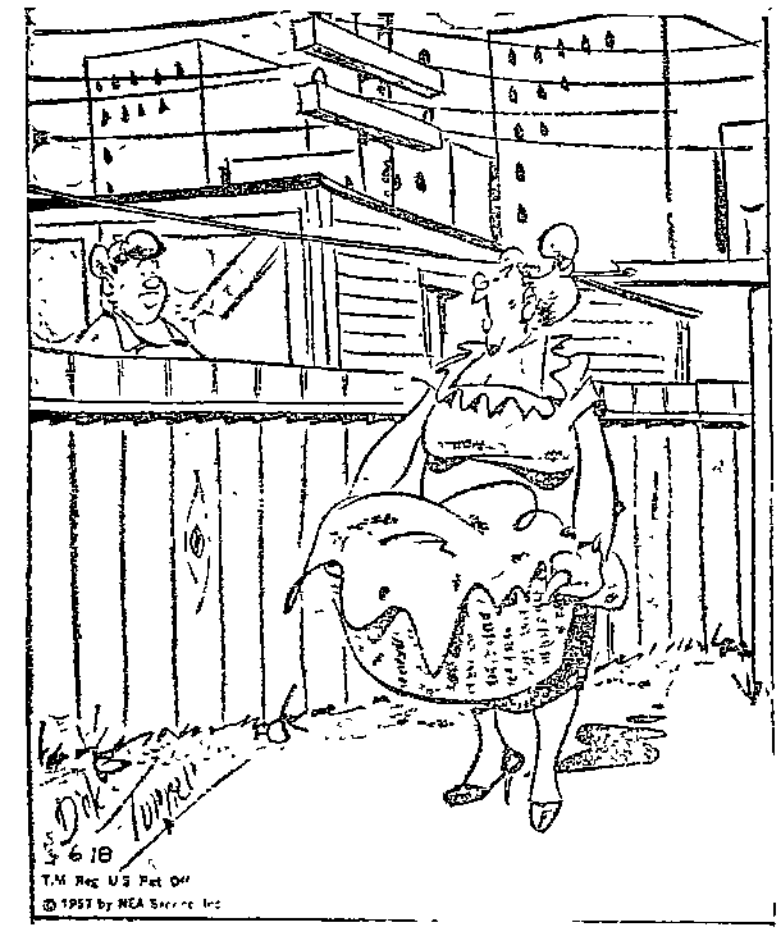

Mrs. Fred Ebel, Buffalo, N. Y., is spending a week in Youngsville with her daughter, Mrs. Donald McKinney, and her mother, Mrs. Archie Jackson.

TO GET FRENCH TRIAL—Army Specialist 3/C De Wayne McOsker of Manhasset, N.Y., is led into the Palais de Justice in Paris to hear the outcome of a U.S. Army request for the right to court-martial him in the killing of an Algerian in a Paris night club. French authorities rejected the request and McOsker will be tried by a French court.

"DIABLO"—The nuclear device "Diablo" rises 30,000 feet into the pre-dawn sky at the Nevada Test Site. The same device failed to detonate June 28 and was disarmed by atomic scientists on its 500-foot tower. This burst, a spectacular blue and orange fireball, was the seventh in the current summer series.

"My husband's not choosy about his food either—so long as it's cooked well, served hot and I make the money to pay for it!"

Titusville Plant Winner of Million Hour Safety Plaque

Philadelphia—Employees of the Titusville plant of the Universal-Cyclops Steel Corporation have won the "million hour" Safety Plaque of the Pennsylvania Manufacturers' Association Casualty Insurance Company for achieving a no lost-time industrial accident record covering the work span from December 15, 1956 to May 27 of this year. According to James F. Malone, executive vice president of the PMA insurance firm, this record represents 1,196,679 hours worked without a disability, but has since been extended without interruption and is now approaching the one and one-half million mark.

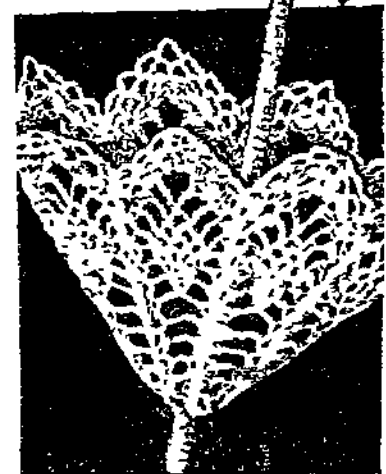

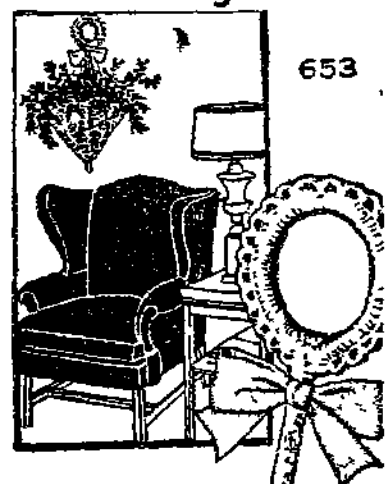

Malone will present the plaque, PMA's highest industrial safety award, to the Universal-Cyclops employees at ceremonies to be held in the Titusville plant on Friday, July 12, at 3 00 p. m. E. H. Broadhurst, general manager of the Titusville plant, will accept the award.

All department heads and representatives of the joint labor-management safety committee will witness the presentation ceremonies. The steel firm will be represented by J. P. Beal, production manager; Fred S. Carlson, Jr., industrial relations manager; Warren Saunders, safety director, Bridgeville division, and C. Earl Stewart, safety director, Cyclops division. Representatives to attend from the local union are John Thompson, president and Charles Wheeler, chairman of the grievance committee.

The Universal-Cyclops company is a pioneer firm in the steel industry where production is devoted to tool steels, high alloy, and other special purpose steels literally "made to order" for customers throughout the world. It ranks third in production and sales among fifteen producers of specialty steels, producing more than five hundred different analyses of custom-tailored steels for uses ranging from dainty wrist watch bands to giant cutting tools for heavy industry.

Shrewish Voice Shatters Pretty Looks

BY ALICIA HART
NEA Beauty Editor

SHE was sitting with a friend just across the aisle on a bus. The immediate thought was: What an attractive mature woman. Her silver-gray hair was cut short and beautifully done. Her skin was clear and smooth. She was trim, slim and well-groomed. She was tastefully dressed and her accessories were in quiet good taste.

She was, in fact, the ideal picture of a woman in her 50's. Then she started to talk. And the picture fell into pieces.

A raucous stream of complaint issued forth in a voice that could only be likened to the scraping of a knife on the bottom of a pan. Gone was the impression of gracious beauty. In its place was a shrewish, unpleasant woman.

Beauty is compounded of many things. Not the least is a low and pleasant voice, one which says things harmonious to the ear. Otherwise, all of the other careful grooming and discipline goes for nothing.

FLY-AWAY hair is a problem with which most women have to deal in the summer. Whether hair is coarse or fine, it tends to become unruly through the heat of the sun and moisture at the seaside.

There are several ways of controlling hair that won't stay put. One of the easiest ways is to use a light cream dressing immediately after a shampoo.

Be sure it is not a greasy dressing; it should leave the hair glossy and smooth, not caked with goo. Best way to use it is to smooth it on your still-damp hair just after you've towelled it.

A few minutes later, take your brush and go to work, brushing from the scalp to the ends of your hair for 100 strokes. Then brush your hair into place.

You'll feel the difference and see it, too. In addition to this, use one of the new, light hair sprays that helps curl to stay in from setting to setting.

DRY skin is a summer problem, too. Too much sun and winter can roughen and dry out your skin quickly.

When you're tanning, pick one of the new tanning lotions or creams made especially to let you tan without drying out your skin.

Even women with oily skin may find their skins becoming parched in the summer sun. The new tanning creams for dry skin permit an even tan with no blistering, peeling or ugly redness.

Color Cream Rinse Leaves Life in Hair

BY ALICIA HART
NEA Beauty Editor

HAIR coloring, like any other make-up, is meant to set your hair shining with color highlights.

It is also meant to banish yellow streaks and tinges and add a lovely smoky, slate, pearl or platinum tone without leaving a blue or purplish cast.

Many gray-haired women find that they have a problem of dryness when they use a temporary hair coloring. Their hair tends to become coarse, brittle and dull.

An answer to this may lie in a new color cream rinse that combines both cream rinse conditioner and temporary color rinse, according to the makers. The color lasts from shampoo to shampoo. The rinse is said to restore the normal moisture content to the hair while giving it color highlights.

The rinse is applied with a brush or cotton wad at the roots of the hair, then along the entire strand. After five minutes, the solution is simply rinsed off with warm water.

For soft and shining hair, this girl uses a new color cream rinse that combines the performance of cream rinse conditioner and temporary color rinse, its makers say. It's intended to restore normal moisture content to the hair.

Migratory Bird Seasons Established for 1957

The Pennsylvania Game Commission announces that seasons and bag limits for the hunting of certain migratory game birds have been established by the U. S. Fish and Wildlife Service.

Federal regulations effective in Pennsylvania for the taking of rails and gallinules, including sora, are from September 2 to November 9, inclusive. The bag limit for rails and gallinules, except sora, is 15 daily with not more than 30 in possession after the first day. 25 sora may be taken daily or held in possession. Woodcock may be hunted from October 15 to November 23, inclusive with a daily bag limit of 4 and possession limit of 8. Doves may be hunted from September 10 to October 24, inclusive. The daily bag and possession limit is 10 birds.

No game of any kind may be hunted on Sunday in Pennsylvania.

Shooting hours and other pertinent federal regulations will be announced later.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Gustafson, Falconer, have been visitors of Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Gardner.

Hal Boyle's Column

New York (AP)—William Basie, a man upon whom immortality has smiled in his own lifetime, believes in living every day as if it were Saturday night.

"I've never been bored," said Bill, better known as Count Basie, dean of "jump swing," who will be 53 next month and has been pounding a piano longer than he can remember.

Basie, a genius at his type of music, is the son of a Red Bank N. J., caretaker. He took only a few 25-cent lessons as a boy, rocketed to the top of the jazz world more than two decades ago, and stayed there ever since.

His band, named as "the best" four years in a row in a poll of critics made by Downbeat Magazine, has made three transatlantic tours. It recently completed an extended engagement at the Waldorf-Astoria, the first Negro band to be featured at that swank hotel.

Basie has survived the postwar jinx that struck down many big name bands, but if you ask him how he has remained on top for so long, he replies as if surprised: "The top? That's the place we're scuffling to reach. The big problem is to hold on to what you've got."

He likes his gin straight and takes life the same way. He expresses himself best in rhythm, not in words, and he speaks with a cautious modesty and courtesy.

"If I've learned one thing," he remarked, "it's this: Don't forget people. If you pass them going up, they're going to be still around, remembering, when you pass them going the other way."

Basie, composer of several hits, started as a $3 a night tune pounder in a Chinese restaurant on the Jersey coast. He began to reach the big time in 1935 when he took over Benny Moten's band at the old Reno Club on 12th St. in Kansas City.

He believes the greatest figures in jazz in his lifetime have been Duke Ellington, Satchmo Armstrong, Tommy Dorsey and Benny Goodman.

And the greatest jazz tunes? "Well, 'St. Louis Blues' is the all-time tune. That's the national anthem as far as I'm concerned. And 'Some of These Days' and 'Twelfth Street Rag' and—I think I'll stop with them."

Shrewish Voice Shatters Pretty Looks

SHE was sitting with a friend just across the aisle on a bus. The immediate thought was: What an attractive mature woman. Her silver-gray hair was cut short and beautifully done. Her skin was clear and smooth. She was trim, slim and well-groomed. She was tastefully dressed and her accessories were in quiet good taste.

She was, in fact, the ideal picture of a woman in her 50's. Then she started to talk. And the picture fell into pieces.

A raucous stream of complaint issued forth in a voice that could only be likened to the scraping of a knife on the bottom of a pan. Gone was the impression of gracious beauty. In its place was a shrewish, unpleasant woman.

Beauty is compounded of many things. Not the least is a low and pleasant voice, one which says things harmonious to the ear. Otherwise, all of the other careful grooming and discipline goes for nothing.

FLY-AWAY hair is a problem with which most women have to deal in the summer. Whether hair is coarse or fine, it tends to become unruly through the heat of the sun and moisture at the seaside.

There are several ways of controlling hair that won't stay put. One of the easiest ways is to use a light cream dressing immediately after a shampoo.

Be sure it is not a greasy dressing; it should leave the hair glossy and smooth, not caked with goo. Best way to use it is to smooth it on your still-damp hair just after you've toweled it.

Color Cream Rinse Leaves Life in Hair

BY ALICIA HART
NEA Beauty Editor

HAIR coloring, like any other make-up, is meant to set your hair shining with color highlights.

It is also meant to banish yellow streaks and tinges and add a lovely smoky, slate, pearl or platinum tone without leaving a blue or purplish cast.

Many gray-haired women find that they have a problem of dryness when they use a temporary hair coloring. Their hair tends to become coarse, brittle and dull.

An answer to this may lie in a new color cream rinse that combines both cream rinse conditioner and temporary color rinse, according to the makers. The color lasts from shampoo to shampoo. The rinse is said to restore the normal moisture content to the hair while giving it color highlights.

The rinse is applied with a brush or cotton wad at the roots of the hair, then along the entire strand. After five minutes, the solution is simply rinsed off with warm water.

For soft and shining hair, this girl uses a new color cream rinse that combines the performances of cream rinse conditioner and temporary color rinse, its makers say. It's intended to restore normal moisture content to the hair.

Hal Boyle's Column

New York (AP)—William Basie, a man upon whom immortality has smiled in his own lifetime, believes in living every day as if it were Saturday night.

"I've never been bored," said Bill, better known as Count Basie, dean of "jump swing," who will be 53 next month and has been pounding a piano longer than he can remember.

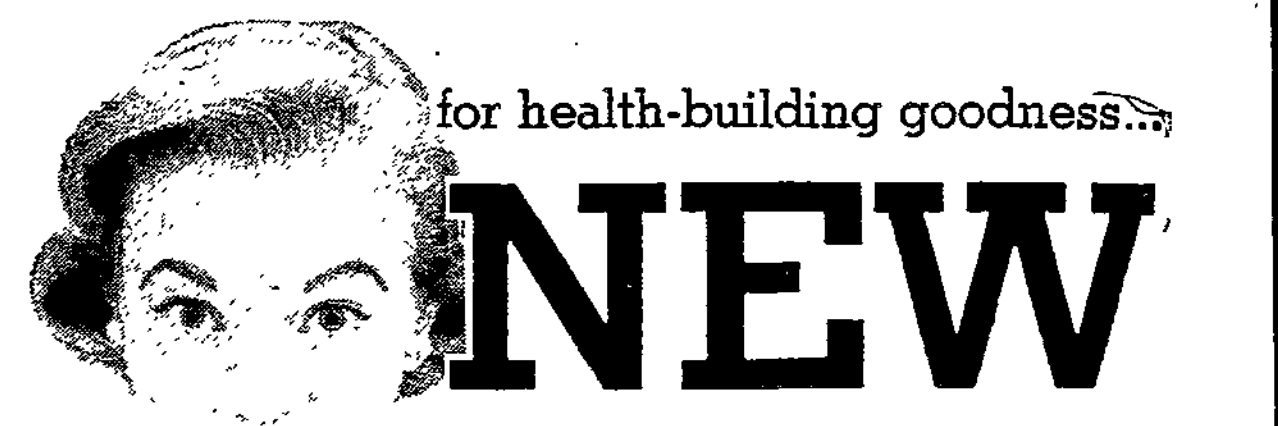

Basie, a genius at his type of music, is the son of a Red Bank N. J., caretaker. He took only a few 25-cent lessons as a boy, rocketed to the top of the jazz world more than two decades ago, and stayed there ever since.

His band, named as "the best" four years in a row in a poll of critics made by Downbeat Magazine, has made three transatlantic tours. It recently completed an extended engagement at the Waldorf-Astoria, the first Negro band to be featured at that swank hostelry.

Basie has survived the postwar jinx that struck down many big name bands, but if you ask him how he has remained on top for so long, he replies as if surprised: "The top? That's the place we're scuffling to reach. The big problem is to hold on to what you've got."

He likes his gin straight and takes life the same way. He expresses himself best in rhythm, not in words, and he speaks with a cautious modesty and courtesy. "If I've learned one thing," he remarked, "it's this: Don't forget people. If you pass them going up, they're going to be still around, remembering when you pass them going the other way."

Basie, composer of several hits, started as a $3 a night tune pounder in a Chinese restaurant on the Jersey coast. He began to reach the big time in 1935 when

It's a new, delicious bread. It's new Viking Meal Bread by Stroehmann's, a perfect blend of not two...but four famous flours. Viking's nutritious goodness, with 50% more protein, than ordinary bread is sealed in by a sparkling aluminum foil wrapper.

Try a tempting loaf of Stroehmann's Viking Meal Bread today. It's fresh now at your grocer's.

He took over Benny Moten's band at the old Reno Club on 12th St. in Kansas City.

He believes the greatest figures in jazz in his lifetime have been Duke Ellington, Satchmo Armstrong, Tommy Dorsey and Benny Goodman.

And the greatest jazz tunes? "Well, 'St. Louis Blues' is the all-time tune. That's the national anthem as far as I'm concerned. And 'Some of These Days' and 'Twelfth Street Rag,' and—I think I'll stop with them."

Migratory Bird Seasons Established for 1957

The Pennsylvania Game Commission announces that seasons and bag limits for the hunting of certain migratory game birds have been established by the U. S. Fish and Wildlife Service.

Federal regulations effective in Pennsylvania for the taking of rails and gallinules, including sora, are from September 2 to November 9, inclusive. The bag limit for rails and gallinules, except sora, is 15 daily with not more than 30 in possession after the first day. 25 sora may be taken daily or held in possession. Woodcock may be hunted from October 15 to November 23, inclusive with a daily bag limit of 4 and possession limit of 8.

Doves may be hunted from September 10 to October 24, inclusive. The daily bag and possession limit is 10 birds.

No game of any kind may be hunted on Sunday in Pennsylvania.

Shooting hours and other pertinent federal regulations will be announced later.

CLYDE ELLSWORTH DAVIS
Funeral services were held in Butler Monday for Clyde Ellsworth Davis, great-grandson of one of Warren's pioneer residents, William Bell, a stonemason who fashioned the Mansion House. Mr. Davis, about 60 years old, was buried in North Cemetery, Butler.

He was taken ill with a virus in April but seemed to be recovering when a sudden relapse brought his death Friday night. Mr. Davis was well known in Warren during previous years when he spent his summers here. He worked as an electrical engineer and was a member of Butler First Presbyterian church, where he taught a Men's Bible Class.

Surviving in Butler are three sisters, Mrs. Garnet Gaiser, Mrs. Jean Johnston, Mrs. Ethel Osterlinder; also three Warren cousins, Mrs. Ella Brown, Katherine V. Hall and Mrs. George D. Todd.

LEE S. CLOUGH
Funeral services, followed by interment in the family plot in Oakland cemetery, will be held at 2:00 p. m. Saturday for Lee S. Clough, former Warren resident, who died earlier in the week in the Martinsburg, W. Va., Veterans' Hospital.

Mr. Clough was born in Warren on April 20, 1895, a son of the late Levi S. and Dora Davis Clough, and spent most of his life in Warren county, living in Spring Creek until 1952. He attended Warren public schools and New York Military Academy in his earlier years, and was a veteran of World War I.

He had been in failing health for several years, but his condition had not been considered serious and his sudden death came as a shock to family and friends alike.

Surviving are a brother, Sheldon S. Clough, New York City; a sister, Marion C. Kinkead, Warren; several nieces and nephews. Another brother, Allison C. Clough, preceded him in death.

MRS. JOHN NODZAK

MRS. JOHN NODZAK
Friends are being received at the Young Funeral Home in Youngsville until 5:00 p. m. Friday, when removal will be made to the family home on Cole Hill and the rosary will be recited there at 9:00 p. m. Services in her memory will be held at 10:00 a. m. Game Commission Chief of Research Reportedly Fired

Harrisburg (AP)—Roger Latham, chief of research for the Pennsylvania Game Commission, is leaving his job August 15 after 21 years with the commission. He reportedly was fired because of differences of opinion over the wildlife program.

Latham said he had often been "called on the carpet and bawled out" for answering newsmen's questions about his research work. He said he finally was called before Commissioner John C. Herman and fired.

Dr. Logan J. Bennett, commission executive director, declined to say whether Latham had been dismissed or had resigned. But he confirmed that the research chief would be leaving August 15. Latham's salary was about $10,000 a year. He said he did not yet have another job.

Bennett, however, said Latham had received a number of job offers, the commission couldn't match.

"He came to the commission and said that he would have to have such and such or he would go elsewhere," Bennett declared.

"There was a difference of opinion about the way wildlife management should be handled in this state," Latham said. "I have a different opinion as to the way the game could be managed. There were other ethical things involved, too."

The Harrisburg Patriot said Latham was an expert whom the commission had "often ignored" on policy matters. It said the commission had ordered no doe season in 1956 over Latham's recommendations from field studies that a season be declared.

out. You are not to blame," read the note. There was no clue as to the identity of "Hon."

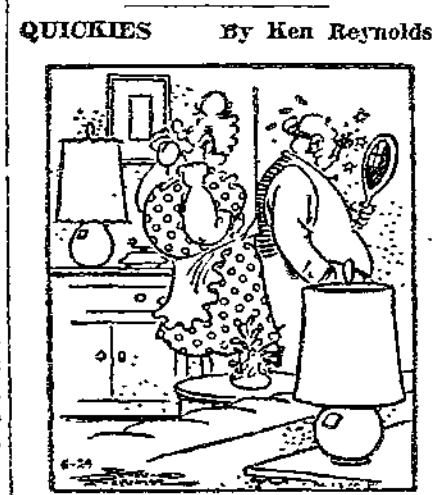

The body of the brunette was found on the seventh-floor terrace roof of an adjoining office building.

Miss Philipp, who would have been 25, July 28, was the daughter of Cyrus Philipp, president of Milwaukee's Union Refrigerator Transit Co. and a former Republican national committeeman. His father, Emanuel, was a former Wisconsin governor.

For the past two months she worked as a secretary at the Allied Public Relations Associates.

CITRUS GROWERS WIN OUT
Lakeland, Fla. (AP)—The Florida Highway Patrol has been placing stickers on automobiles which read: "For safety's sake slow down and live. Stop for a coffee break." This coffee plug aroused the ire of R. V. Phillips, a leading citrus man. He protested to the Florida Citrus Commission which carried the complaint to the patrol. From now on the stickers will read: "Stop. Never drive while tired. Refresh with orange juice."

other programs before it passes the big measure.

In renewing his plea for the defense support program, Eisenhower said it was "essential assistance required to support certain nations which are maintaining large forces as a part of the free world's defense effort."

Based on yesterday's voting, Carnahan said Eisenhower's requested three-year authority for a loan fund for economic projects abroad "is almost sure to be reduced."

And the floor manager indicated also he was prepared to accept a 50 or 75 million dollar trimming of the 300 million dollars Eisenhower wants for "special assistance," or general economic aid if that would stop even deeper cuts.

Final passage could come today, the fourth day of consideration of the measure.

much attention and it is expected crowds will fill Beatty school on performance nights.

Bill Clinger reported on the successful Mid-Summer Mardi Gras recently completed, noting that it was the largest event of its kind ever held in this area.

Chairman Ralph Anschuetz reported on the flag sale, noting that many people had not yet been contacted and that flags could still be purchased by calling him or any Jaycee member.

Chairman Dick Munch related to members the success of the Junior Golf Tournament, noting that, although Warren winners did not fare too well in the State Tournament, the experience should serve them well in later competition and that this event will be held again next year. Letters of appreciation were read from the two winners, Bob Yerg and Ross Kremer.

Prior to adjournment, it was announced the next meeting of Jaycees will climax the membership drive and will be held at some outside picnic spot.

Advertising Agency in Hassle With Magazine

New York, (AP)—A "conflict of interest" has led an advertising agency to drop its advertising and promotion work for the Readers Digest magazine. The agency said the account conflicted with that of the American Tobacco Co. which it also handles.

The magazine recently began publication of a series of articles critical of the effectiveness of filters in removing tar and nicotine from cigarettes.

There were trade reports that the tobacco company had told the advertising agency that "either the Readers Digest goes or we go."

DOG HOLDS UP TRAIN

Philadelphia, (AP)—Southbound Broad street subway trains were held up for half an hour by a stray dog prowling along the tracks during yesterday's morning rush hour. Thousands of impatient passengers left the trains stopped at stations and sought other transportation—or walked—to work.

Veteran Right-Hander Helping To Keep Cards In League Race

By ED WILKS

The Associated Press
It may have been kid like the McDaniel boys who perked up St. Louis pitching, but at the moment it's late-comer Sam Jones who has on the big ones to put the Cardinals in the National League lead.

The 31-year-old right-hander, who went to the Cards from Chicago's Cubs in one of Frank Lane's deals last December, now has won four in a row for the first time in a five-year major league career and each as figured in the Redbirds' rise to the top.

He got them back into first place

ELKS HAVE GAMES SATURDAY AND SUNDAY

The Warren Elks baseball team has games scheduled for Saturday and Sunday. Saturday at two o'clock, the State Hospital diamond, they will meet the fast Art Metal team, from Jamestown. Sunday they will play at Bemus Point.

Last evening in an exciting and well-played game the Elks lost to Kinzua by the close score of 8 to 7. A new pitcher, Sparks, worked part of the game for Warren along with Kenny Thompson.

last night, breaking the Cards' four-game losing streak with a 7-3 victory over fourth-place Brooklyn that ended the Dodgers' spurt at five games and finally junked Don Newcombe's six-year whammy.

St. Louis regained the lead by one percentage point as Milwaukee dropped Philadelphia out of first with a 10-3 decision that lifted the Braves to second with a .570 percentage. The Cards are .571.

Cincinnati remained fifth, two games back, on a 5-4 victory over New York Giants with Redleg Frank Robinson shuffling off Tuesday's beaning to return to the lineup. Chicago scored twice in the seventh to beat Pittsburgh, 4-3.

In the American League, the New York Yankees stayed four games ahead with a 5-1 victory at Detroit after Chicago's second place White Sox had defeated Baltimore 3-1. Boston lost to Kansas City 4-3 in 12 innings, but Ted Williams took the league batting lead from Yankee Mickey Mantle. Washington rapped Cleveland off a five-game winning streak, 11-6.

Jones, tagged "Toothpick Sam" because he's never without one on the mound, gave up 10 hits but struck out 12 and never was in much trouble.

Dark Sees Cards as His Fourth Flag in Third Town

BY HARRY GRAYSON
NEA Sports Editor

NEW YORK—(NEA)—Alvin Dark smacked his lips walking down the clubhouse steps and back into the Polo Grounds. The old pro had showed them. When the Giants traded their captain a year ago, it was gently hinted that Dark wasn't covering the ground he once did. As a shortstop, his arm was always faulted. Now they said that there was less bounce in his legs.

But at 35, Dark is having one of his best years and the surprising Cardinals are out in front and winging.

Pennants follow Dark around. He helped the Boston Braves to one in 1948, sparked the Giants to two in '51 and '54. Now he confidently expects the Red Birds to make him one of the mighty few players who have been on four championship clubs in three different towns.

The St. Louis club finished 17 games out last season and didn't get going this trip until late May, but Dark insists that he was high on the outfit from the start.

"It takes 25 men to win a pennant and the Cardinals have them," says the all-around Beauty of the Bayous. "We have balance, pitching and a defense to go with power hitting and a bench."

DARK PERSISTS THAT HIS shortstopping isn't any different than it was when he was helping the Braves and Giants to flags. "Everybody looks better when the club is winning," he points out. "The Giants who swept the World Series of '54 hardly were the greatest club ever put together, but they certainly looked the part."

Starting with Stan Musial's bold bid for his seventh National League batting championship, there are several interesting stories in connection with the Cardinals' upsurge. There is the arrival of Don Blasingame as a stickout playmaker at second base and a top lead-off man, among the league leaders in runs scored and stolen bases.

ANY TALK ABOUT the Cardinals now winds up with the remarkable bonus babies, the McDaniel brothers—Lindy, 21, and Von, 18.

"I've never seen a pitcher like Von, a loose-jointed, long-armed kid," says Dark. "He'd have won a fifth straight game against Cincinnati, but it was awfully hot and the boy was working with three days' rest. Fred Hutchinson suspected he might be tired, so relieved him in the eighth and Sam Jones got the credit."

"Neither Lindy nor Von overpower hitters. They are control pitchers with stuff, not throwers. Lindy can throw a little harder and is more of a low-ball pitcher than Von."

THE CARDINALS HAVE PLENTY of pitching to go with the phenomenal Oklahoma youngsters—Vinegar Bend Mizell, Willard Schmidt, Larry Jackson, Jones, Herman Wehmeier, Murry Dickson and Hoyt Wilhelm.

Baseball is a game of momentum, as you no doubt have heard, and the Cardinals have had that, too, in more recent weeks, traveling at a .667 pace.

This could be the Gas House Gang all over again, right down to the pair of brothers who can't wait their turn to get in there and pitch.

INTERESTED IN TOURNEY?

Bob Hammerbeck, YMCA physical director, is making a survey of local members who might be interested in a tennis tournament. Anyone who would like to participate in a tourney on the smooth new Y court is invited to contact Robert. The court may now be reserved for an hour by calling the Y office at 1000. Singles may reserve the court for an hour, doubles for an hour and a half.

Giants and Dodgers Definitely Going West, Writer Says

By JOE REICHLER

New York (P)—The New York Giants and Brooklyn Dodgers definitely will be playing their regular season home game in San Francisco and Los Angeles, respectively, in 1958. The Associated Press was told today by a source close to one of the local National League teams. No contracts have been signed, no money has changed hands and no negotiations have been originated with member clubs of the Pacific Coast League. But, according to the informant, Presidents Horace Stoneham of the Giants and Walter O'Malley of the Dodgers have given their word to San Francisco and Los Angeles official that they'll bring their clubs there provided all promises made last May are kept. The California politicians have no intention of reneging, he said.

The informant said contracts actually have been signed with Skiatron television to pipe closed circuit telecasts of home games into private dwellings in the San Francisco and Los Angeles areas. "Skiatron has guaranteed the two clubs a million dollars a year," the man said.

The informant said negotiations for the drafting of the San Francisco and Los Angeles territories will begin as soon as baseball law allows—on October 1—and the two New York clubs will be in California before the major league winter meetings get under way in Colorado Springs, Colo. in December.

PITCHING—Bob Turley, Yankees, won fourth in row with six-strikeout six-hitter that beat Tigers 5-1.

Hurricane Jackson Says Heavyweight Title Incidental

Columbia, N. J. (P)—Hurricane Jackson says he wants to give Floyd Patterson "the beating of his life" July 29. The world heavyweight title is only an incidental factor.

"If I win it I'd like to give it back to him the same night," said Hurricane in discussing their champion match at New York's Polo Grounds.

Of course, Jackson will do nothing of the kind. Even if he still felt that way, his manager, Lippe Breidbart, and his mom would see to that.

"I'm gonna be muc hharder this time," said the Hurricane. "I'm gonna fight harder. Last time I cried like a baby before I got in the ring because he was my friend. He's no friend no more."

What happened? "Just one of those things." Jackson was anxious to discuss their first match last year, won on a split decision by Patterson who moved on to win the title by knocking out Archie Moore. "I won it," said Jackson, his eyes flashing. "The referee Harry Kessler was the closest of all and he thought I won it. I tell you one thing, he (Patterson) wouldn't fight me no more."

Giardello Decision Over Chico Vejar Has Repercussions

Louisville, Ky. (P)—Postbort verbal clashes produced almost as much excitement last night as the nationally televised fight in which Joey Giardello took a unanimous—but unpopular—decision over Chico Vejar.

After the nearly 5,000 fans at Freedom Hall shouted their disapproval of the decision, the action continued on into the dressing room where Steve Ellis, who handled Vejar, announced he had been tossed out of Giardello's dressing room.

Ellis, in a verbal battle with Tony Ferrante, Giardello's manager, challenged the winner to a rematch—winner take all.

Ferrante accepted. "Then promoter Bill King said 'Giardello never will fight here again as long as he has anything to do with Ferrante.'"

King said the statement was the result of financial differences between himself and Giardello's manager. King claimed Ferrante wanted 30 per cent of the gate instead of the 25 per cent he had originally agreed upon.

King said Ferrante had threatened not to allow Giardello to fight unless the higher figure was forthcoming.

Francis Bauman, Kentucky deputy boxing commissioner, said he would investigate the financial tiff between King and Ferrante.

There was also talk of a Tiger Jones-Vejar fight here in August.

You can have immediate possession of this attractive 3-bedroom home (with finished 3rd floor for extra bedroom and storage). Besides all this, there is a first floor laundry, den room and enclosed porch. Full, dry basement with automatic gas furnace, play room and work shop. Just enough lot to make it attractive, with big double garage with overhead doors. AND IT IS IN AN ATTRACTIVE CONEWANGO AVENUE SECTION CLOSE TO HOME STREET SCHOOL. Under F.H.A. requirements, this should finance with about $2000.00 (or less) down. WHY PAY RENT? We have the key, so give us a call.
